

Geosynthetics Interest Group of South Africa

Established 1994

Protection Function

“The use of a geosynthetic material as a localised stress reduction layer to prevent or reduce damage to a given surface or layer.”

Image: Protection Function

(Geomembrane Liner overlain by Protection Geotextile)

The above definitions are stated within the South African context.
Refer to ISO 10318:2018: Geosynthetics – Terms and definitions for formal definitions.
IGS Reference.